(b) to (d) As in 1971 and 1981 Census, in 1991 Census also, for specific time bound temporary work of manual compilation, tabulation, edit and coding of census data, large number of persons were engaged on consolidated salary basis for stipulated periods.

In 1971 and 1981 Census, the services of such parsons ended on the stipulated dates. Similarly for 1991 Census, the services of persons engaged in compilation and tabulation stood terminated after the job was over on the scheduled dates. Only a small number of such temporary staff are continuing on contract for edit and coding work and they will be disengaged on completion of the contract period.

As in 1971 and 1981, the Government have issued circulars giving some concessions to such temporarily engaged census staff, such as relaxation in age, priority in employment through Employment Exchange, absorption against vacancies in some categories of posts in Census Organisation provided they fulfil the recruitment qualifications etc. The Home Minister has also addressed letters to Chief Ministers & Lt. Governors of States/Union Territories for providing similar concessions in respect of State Government/Union Territory jobs.

No count has been kept about the person; appointed in Government jobs on the basis of these concessions after 1971 or 1981 Census.

Dual citizenship to NRIs and Related benefit

THE MINISTER OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI S. B CHAVAN) : (a) to (d) During the Press Conference held in Bangkok on 9th April, 1993, a question regarding grant to dual citizenship was raised. The Prime Minister stated that this question has been posed for quite long time and if a solution had been easy, it would have been sorted out long ago. There are almost insurmountable difficulties in evolving a pattern by which NRIs can have the benefits and concessions without granting dual citizenship.
